Deputation Demand Signs Replacement

Some time ago the Department of Highways placed a directional sign near the spot where Highway 121 branches off Highway 35. The sign read "HALIBURTON and Resort Area." The wording "and Resort Area" seemed to be a little ambiguous and as a result of protests from operators along Highway 35, a meeting was held at Minden where representatives of the Department of Highways met with the dissenting parties to find a workable solution.

It is apparent that outside of the Dysart council, only one resort operator from the Haliburton area was present and it would appear that the results were on a par with the recent summit conference held in Paris.

It was stated by those who were representing this area that the sign in dispute would be left in its position for a period of 10 days until another suitable one could be erected. But two days after the meeting the sign was taken down by officials of the Dept. of Highways.

While resort operators in the area were conspicuous by their absence from the meeting in Minden, they turned out in full force at the Monday session of the Dysart council and demanded that council take immediate action to have the sign replaced.

After a thorough discussion of this matter the following resolution was passed by council.

That a letter be written to H. C. Dernier and to Hon. L. M. Frost protesting the removal of the sign "Haliburton and Resort Area" erected by the Dept. of Highways at the junction of Highways 35 and 121 and urging erection of an overhead or other sign directing traffic to Highway 35 straight ahead and Highway 121 and village of Haliburton to the right, and a request for a meeting with proper representatives of the said department at the earliest date possible to discuss the above mentioned erection.

Articles Needed For Auction

Jack Rae, chairman of the Haliburton Rotary club's auction sale, is back at work after a short illness and he has the auction sale rolling right along.

The Echo interviewed Jack on Tuesday and he gave us the following information to pass on to you. As you know the date for the Rotary auction sale has been set for June 18 at the Haliburton community arena.

The first pick up was held on Wednesday and although the response was very good many articles are still needed.

Jack Rae stated in our interview that he was well aware many of the local citizens have articles they are going to donate to the auction but they are hesitating to phone, so that a truck can pick it up. Remember it's very simple. Just pick up your phone and ask for Rotary. From there on the Rotarians will look after the rest.

If you care to bring your articles for the sale downtown, just leave it off at Rae's Hardware and Jack will be only too glad to take care of it.

Let's keep it in our minds that when we donate to the auction sale we are helping the crippled children and community welfare work. The proceeds will go to these two worthy causes.

Let's get those phones ringing as June 18 isn't too far off. And the Rotary remind you once again that they will take everything but your garbage.

Some of the people we have been talking with are wondering if their goods are good enough to auction off. Don't worry about this—send them along. The Rotary needs your support.

H.S. Choir Win Top Honors

The choir of the Haliburton County District High School were successful in winning the shield at the Bancroft music festival.

Our choir had stiff competation from the choir of the Bancroft high school—only four points separating them.

This very creditable choral group is under the direction of Miss Betty Barnum with Mr. William Gliddon acting as accompaniest.

AN ERROR

Due to a misplaced line an unfortunate error has occurred in the advertisement "Tenders—Addition To High School," appearing in this paper. Three phone numbers are given, A. Stouffer 90J, Earl Hewitt 59, D. Berry 530R50.

The only phone number appearing should have been A. Stouffer 90J, Minden.

LeRoy Brown Addresses Local Citizens

A highly interesting and informative talk on landscaping was given to a group of interested citizens by Mr. LeRoy Brown, agricultural representative, in the Legion hall on the evening of May 9.

Mr. Clarence McInerney of the high school staff, who works in close co-operation with Mr .Brown, introduced the speaker.

Speaking informally Mr. Brown illustrated his talk with beautiful colored slides, convincing evidence of what can be accomplished by careful planning and effort.

It was pointed out that well painting buildings and tidy surroundings have much to do with setting the background for such beauty. This is where we begin.

During a brief discussion Mr. Brown kindly answered questions and gave advice on gardening problems in this area. Helpful pamphlets on all phases, both agriculture and horticulture are available free from the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Thanking Mr. Brown for his kindness in including us in a very busy schedule, Miss Clarke, on behalf of the Senior Citizens Club and others present, expressed appreciation for the encouragement received and expressed the hope that this might be a first step toward reorganizing the horticultural society in Haliburton. Many old timers remember the lovely flower shows we used to have.

Following this the club proceeded with the regular meeting as usual. Games music and refreshments were enjoyed and two new members welcomed.

The Explorers of the United church, a group of girls under the leadership of Mrs. John Sedgwick and her assistant, Mrs. Bob Brohm, have kindly offered to be responsible for the program at the next meeting on Monday, June 13.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT

Minden, May 12—Lorne Madill of Gooderham was charged with threatening and pointing a gun at Wm. J. Young, also of Gooderham.

On April 20 Mr. Young stopped to see his six year old son who was living with Mrs. Young at the home of Lorne Madill. Mr. Madill came out of the house, pointed a gun at Wm. Young and told him to get off the property or he would shoot him.

The accused was found guilty and was bound over to keep the peace for one year or forfeit $500 and forbidden to have Mrs. Young at his home. The accused paid $19 plus $6 witness fees.

Altogether the supper and evening was very enjoyable.

A VILLAGE CHANGES

The year was 1898 . . . the scene an Ontario village.

A local historian, reflecting on the things she remembered about the village, wrote that the village had "No electricity, no stone roads, no radio, no telephone, just coal oil lamps for light."

Today in her village the coal oil lamp has vanished, pavement covers the dirt roads, and telephones, radios, and electric lights are taken for granted.

These changes were possible because of steel. In 1898, Canada made less than 10 pounds of steel per person. Last year, the country's steel industry produced 660 pounds of steel per person.

This higher productivity comes from the factories Canadians have built. For example, The Steel Company of Canada, Limited has invested nearly $365,000,000 in plants and equipment since the Company started operations fifty years ago.

Canadians produce more mainly because Canadian companies are continually improving their plants and equipment.

Volkswagen makes sense for you—Here's why!
Volkswagen's engine is air-cooled, an astonishing advantage when you think about it. No water to boil over in summer. No water to freeze in winter. Owners say the VW engine seems to go on forever with so little effort, fuel or attention. Friction and stress are so low, in fact, that a VW can cruise at 70 all day long without any over-exertion.
Volkswagen is great fun to drive; agile and highly responsive, with one of the smoothest stick shifts in the business. It's 4 feet shorter than conventional cars, yet holds 4 adults, with a surprising amount of room.
Volkswagen's suspension is different; all-independent by torsion bars. It gives you uncanny control over rough roads (no bump-bump-bump). And the new anti-sway bar eliminates swing and sway on curves. The engine in the back gives the Volkswagen superb traction. In mud, sand, ice, snow, where other cars skid, you go.
Obviously, this is a classic design that is not to be changed just for the sake of change. The Volkswagen you buy today will remain in style long after other cars have come and gone.
One of the things designed right into the Volkswagen is easy, low-cost maintenance. The car is so well conceived that its engine can be removed and replaced in only 90 minutes.
And best of all: the price of a Volkswagen is much lower than you would expect. No wonder, then, Volkswagen is the largest selling import in North America—by far.

MOON SHINE

High in the sky sails the silvery moon
The target of every nation,
Taking her turn in the evening gloom
As she has since the dawn of creation.
Nothing phases her shining face
As she floats sublimely in outer space,
Defying the efforts of puny man,
To land on her surface, if he can.

—Ann Cummins.

SPRING

The call of a crow in the early morn
The sigh of new lambs and of calves just born,
The whinnew of colts, the cluck of a hen,
And I know life's cycle has begun again.
All these small things are the factors of spring,
All these wonderous things make many hearts sing
The wonders of nature as she brings forth young.
Are glorys of God, as with God it begun.

—Gloria Irwin

19-inch hand-propelled model. Also 21-inch hand and self-propelled models.

VACUUM-CLEANS YOUR LAWN! The New Toro Whirlwind cuts grass as no other rotary does—with a new "Wind Tunnel" action that freezes each blade of grass upright for a crisp, clean cut . . . then blows clippings into the bagging attachment.
And not only does this revolutionary mower bag your grass clippings, but also leaves, twigs, lawn litter —all are sucked up by the Whirlwind's super-vacuum and deposited in the bag for easy disposal.
The secret is inside the Whirlwind's unique housing —an exclusive Toro design. It has none of the indentations and corners that cause ordinary rotaries to form clumps—clippings have a clear track to be blown into the bag or dispersed uniformly over your lawn!
3-season worksaver! Use your new Toro Whirlwind for spring clean-up, summer mowing, fall leaf disposal! Come in for a free demonstration!

THE GOOD DRIVER

The writer of this column was driving behind a panel truck in the city the other day, in the curb lane, when it slowed down and finally stopped for no apparent reason. Then it was seen that the left hand turn signal was flashing—scarcely noticeable because of dirt on the lens, and bright sunlight on the back of the car.

The truck began to edge out to the middle of the road. Surprised drivers in the passing lane swerved and sounded their horns angrily at this unforseeable manoeuvre. The young driver of the panel truck sat straddling the two lanes, waiting for a gap in the following traffic to allow him to make his left turn.

The day was mild, and his window was open. Yet, at no time did he bother to put his arm out to give the hand signal that would have explained and emphasized his intention, avoided irritation to a number of following drivers, and assured him a much more rapid crossing.

A mechanical signal is legally sufficient to indicate intention to turn. But, says the Ontario Safety League, there are occasions when it is stupid, discourteous and dangerous not to give hand signals as well as mechanical signals. A hand signal should always be given for additional emphasis whenever a driver proposes to make a move that is in any way unusual, or liable to surprise or inconvenience other road users. For instance, a hand signal should be given when preparing to stop on city streets to back into a parking spot.

Stretching the left arm through an open window requires very little egort. It is just one of the many little things that make the difference between average driving and good driving.

Driving could be a great deal pleasanter, and safer, if everyone would give these little extra efforts to the job.

"IN SEASON AND OUT"

At this time of the year perhaps winter blasts are far from our thoughts. The work of the Salvation Army, however, goes on the year round and wintertime is heavy with want and care for those who meet with misfortune, insecurity and poverty.

At scores of Salvation Army shelters and hostels across Canada, winter means a busy time among the underprivileged and needy. Homeless people must be sheltered and hungry men, women and children fed.

This means effort and organization, but Salvation Army personnel are trained and dedicated for the task.

Few spectacles gladden the eyes more than that of hungry and cold people being served with steaming dinners at a time when the need nourishment and cheer.

Many of the Army's corps officers, in addition to proclaiming the Christian message, also do a great amount of welfare work among individuals and families. Each day brings its round ofvisits to homes and hospitals, and the officers give help where this is needed most.

Transients are also assisted, if in want, with clothes or lodgings, thus fulfilling the slogan "with heart to God and hand to man."

Children are cared for in a variety of ways in nurseries, schools and homes that are really such.

Aged folk are also accommodated in Eventide homes and Sunset lodges that are bright and airy, and where the senior citizens may spend their declining years in comfort and peace.

There are now approximattely 4,000 trained officers working in Canada, plus thousands more all over the world. They labor in every strata of society and follow mainly the pattern of aid for the need and unchurched laid down by the Army's founder, William Booth, whose love for humanity started one of the greatest agencies for the amelioration of mankind.

CANADIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Ottawa—The special committee of the Senate on land use in Canada was told today that the Chamber of Commerce movement has active development programs underway at the local level in Canada in the fields of tourism, agriculture, and industrial promotion.

A brief was presented by a delegation representing the executive council of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce in response to an invitation from the chairman of the senate committee to comment on rural development programs in Canada.

Dealing with the question of establishing small rural industries, especially in under employment and marginal areas in Canada, the brief described how the Canadian chamber developed policies, produced material, conducted courses, and provided information to local boards of trade and chambers of commerce with respect to industrial development.

The brief also pointed out that the more than 750 boards and chambers federated into the Canadian chamber are working hard to develop industries in their communities and a large percentage of them have very active industrial development committees.

All this work "was based on the principle of self-help and initiative."

In the field of tourism which, the brief said, can be considered as a rural industry where the topographical, historical and other features of the community lend themselves to tourist development, chambers at the national, provincial and local level were very active. Several examples were cited of job creating patentialities of tourism in rural areas.

The brief also described the various programs carried out by the chamber movement in promoting rural-urban cooperation. Many boards and chambers have committees dealing with such matters as marketing services, processing plants, farm markets, livestock improvement, business farm days, agricultural meetings.

In conclusion, the brief said "we feel that when the problems of the rural community come to be better defined, the chamber of commerce movement, both at the national and particularly at the local level, will be ready and willing to make a contribution to the solution of these problems. We believe strongly that the individual should always be given the opportunity to help himself and that, by joining with others in his community, a considerable contribution can be made with the concomitance of greater maturity, greater self reliance and greater initiative."

The Salvation Army's business is to meet human need —irrespective of race, color or creed.

The Dysart community park is fast taking on an appearance that would justify its name. This so-called park, which has been more or less of a dumping ground for the past few years, was certainly not much of a credit to the area. One has only to visit the scene to notice the great improvements that have already been made and we understand that this is only the beginning. New bleachers have been installed. The baseball diamond has been vastly improved and those unsightly chicken coop type of buildings, that have adorned the edge of the park for so long, are being removed. Anything in the nature of progress, it is said, moves very slowly, but those who four years ago started an agitation to have the park made respectable are at last seeing their dreams come true. Orchids to the Dysart council, the community centres board and the caretaker, Mr. Sawyer, for what has already been accomplished and let's hope the good work continues.

It is with regret that we report Mrs. Wallace Woods, who for some time has not been in good health, had to be taken by ambulance to the Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay, last week.

IN MEMORIAM

Howe—In loving memory of Byron Howe, dear husband and father, who passed away May 21, 1953:

We often sit and think of him
When we are all alone,
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own
Like ivy on the withered oak
When other things decay,
Our love for him will still be green
And never fade away.

—Always remembered by wife Margaret and family.

Special Speaker At Minden Gospel Church

Many attending the revival meetings of the open air campaign conducted by Rev. Bryce Hartin of Australia, received a real blessing from the Lord.

The open air campaigns were first begun in Australia in 1896 and came to Canada in 1956. This organization seeks to save souls for Christ by taking the gospel to the people by ministering to them in the streets, parks, factories, shops, reformatories and on wharves. They aim to reach those who do not attend any church.

During the campaign Biblical pictures were shown of Jonah, Sampson, the Red Sea and Daniel. From these films the evangelist explained how the mighty power of God was shown to those who trust in Christ and obey God's words and the terrible punishment awaiting those who disobey Him.

On Friday night before the service a capacity crowd enjoyed pictures of Australia and New Zealand. God's handwork was revealed to us in science as we viewed the hot springs, corals, mountains, native plants and animals, pictures of the work of the O.A.C. across Canada were presented on Saturday night which revealed the great work they were doing toward spreading the gospel.

During these special meetings the evangelist, in a simple and interesting manner explained the way of Salvation and many accepted Christ as their personal Saviour while others rededicated their lives to God.

During these services we were reminded that all our good works here on earth would never fit us for heaven, unless we accepted Christ as our Saviour and obeyed God's Word. We should set our minds on winning souls for Christ and not on earthly possessions beyond our needs and our reward in Heaven will be great.

To do this we should recapture the faith and obedience shown by Christians in Biblical days, such as Daniel.
